Summary: On October 16, 2000, Cynthia Marshall, Vice President-Regulatory, Pacific Bell Telephone Company ("Pacific"), met with Fassil Fenikile, advisor to Cmmr. Neeper, in San Francisco. Also present were David Discher, General Attorney, and Sandy McGreevy, General Manager-Regulatory, of Pacific. McGreevy stressed that the evidence in the record and the language in Decision 00-03-020 do not support prohibiting the disconnection of local service for Pacific's usage products and vertical services. McGreevy requested that the Commission approve Advice Letter 21353 on the basis that it is consistent with the original mandate of D.00-03-020, reject ALJ Bushey's draft decision's proposed modification to Ordering Paragraph 4, and adopt a modification to Ordering Paragraph 4 that would simply prohibit the "disconnection of local service for nonpayment of interexchange carrier charges."

Summary: On October 16, 2000, Kristel L. Frank, Chair of the Friends of the Richmond Ferry ("Friends") met with Cmmr. Neeper and Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. Also present at both meetings was Terry Mollica, a party to the proceeding. Frank explained that the Friends have two main issues with Red & White Ferries, Inc.'s ("R&W") request to suspend service: first, R&W has not fulfilled its obligation to promote and support the service, and second, the Friends dispute R&W's financial representations. Frank emphasized that if R&W were allowed to cease operations while these issues were pending, it would irreparably harm the ferry service. Frank stated that before drafting a resolution, the Commission should read the protest filed by the Friends and should carefully examine the data request responses provided by R&W.
